FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CITY RECEIVES NATIONAL AWARD FOR READINESS AND INCIDENT RESPONSE

November 14, 2016.....San Clemente, California....The City of San Clemente received recognition at the United States Lifesaving Association's Fall Board of Directors Meeting in Denver, Colorado which took place on November 3rd through November 5th. The City's Marine Safety Chief Bill Humphreys attended the meeting to accept the award for "National Award for Readiness and Incident Response" from Heroic Acts Chair Adrienne Groh.

The City of San Clemente was selected for its contribution to public safety and community. The award honors an agency that has presented evidence that demonstrates its ability in providing high levels of lifeguard readiness and preparedness, and/or has presented an example of a high level of readiness and preparedness during a response to a major incident, mutual aid call, or mass casualty that brings great credit to the agency and to the profession.
