INVOCATION

Bishop Jim Hennings, San Clemente Marblehead Congregation, gave the invocation.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

Councilmember Hamm led the Pledge of Allegiance.

1. SPECIAL PRESENTATIONS

A. Saddleback College State of the College Presentation

Dr. Tod Burnett, President of Saddleback College, narrated a PowerPoint presentation entitled "Presentation to San Clemente City Council" concerning the Fiscal State of the College. A hard copy of the presentation is on file with the City Clerk.

B. Transportation Corridor Agencies (TCA) Ascertainment Study Concerning Regional Mobility

Sharon Browning, Principal of Sharon Browning and Associates, narrated a Power Point presentation entitled "South Orange County Mobility Community Ascertainment Study". A hard copy of the presentation is on file with the City Clerk.

Brenda Miller, San Clemente, spoke in support of the Ascertainment Study; suggested that the best way to reduce traffic demands is to provide alternatives, including multi-modal transportation opportunities.

2. ORAL COMMUNICATIONS (PART 1)

Formation of San Clemente School District

Craig Delahooke, Board Member of SCPIER (San Clemente Partners Improving Education Responsibly), reported on SCPIER's purpose to investigate the possibility of forming a San Clemente School District; noted that SCPIER has applied for non-profit status and is currently raising money to conduct a financial feasibility study; explained that if the financial feasibility study produces affirmative results, SCPIER will pursue an assessment of other feasibility factors.

Paige Foreman, speaking on behalf of SCPIER, stated that small school districts are more prone to provide excellence in education; opined that the status quo at Capistrano Unified School District is not proving successful; requested Council support.

Housing Issues

Anthony LaFrano, San Clemente, urged Council to not rent, lease or sell land to Ed Connor because he is suing the City; requested short-term lodging units be prohibited in neighborhoods east of the freeway; voiced concern with drug use in sober living facilities.

Councilmanic Districts

Jim Bieber, San Clemente, urged Council to implement district elections for Councilmembers; suggested it is not good for the community when all Councilmembers live in one area of town.

The Ecology Center

Lucian Toma noted that the Ecology Center in San Juan Capistrano is dedicated to protecting environmental health and promoting sustainability; displayed a PowerPoint presentation entitled "Hands-On Environmental Solutions at the Household, Workplace and Community Level". A hard copy of the presentation is on file with the City Clerk.

Drug Abuse

Craig Sheets voiced concern with methamphetamine labs in Orange County.

7. PUBLIC HEARINGS

A. Sign Exception Permit and Sign Ordinance Amendments - Zoning Amendment 15-225 and General Plan Amendment 16-002

Continued Public Hearing to add General Plan policies regarding freeway-oriented signs and consideration of the removal of the Sign Exception Permit provisions and modifications to the sign ordinance, including but not limited to, removal of freeway-oriented signs, limitations on the size of signs, and amortization provisions.

Associate Planner Nicholas reviewed the contents of the Administrative Report and, along with City Planner Pechous, responded to Council inquiries; reviewed photographs that demonstrated freeway-visible versus freeway-oriented signage. Hard copies of Mr. Nicholas' photographs are on file with the City Clerk.

Mayor Baker opened the Public Hearing.

Gregory Weiler, representing the owners of Valero Gas Station, voiced opposition to the proposed Ordinance; asserted that a new Ordinance should include verbiage concerning Business and Professions Code Section 5499, that allows business owners, under special circumstances, to maintain pole signs and other signs to the extent topography limits visibility.

Roy Flahive, International Sign Association, urged Council to postpone its decision on this issue until further dialogue has occurred; opined that smaller signage is more dangerous to motorists than signage that is easier to read; distributed a letter, dated February 25, 2016, from attorney Jeffrey Aran, that is on file with the City Clerk.

James Carpentier, International Sign Association and California Sign Association, urged Council to defer action to allow stakeholders to develop a reasonable compromise; spoke in opposition to a differentiation between freeway-visible and freeway-oriented signage.

Sheri Crummer, San Clemente, noted that freeway signs help persons unfamiliar with an area locate food, gas and lodging.

Mike Reilly, representing the Chamber of Commerce (and owner of Starfish Signs and Graphics), spoke on the effectiveness of high-quality signage; encouraged Council to promote quality signage, as opposed to prohibiting certain types of signage.

Bill Godwin, San Clemente, spoke in support of signage; suggested signs provide a quality of life which allows residents and visitors to patronize businesses that they might otherwise not know existed.

Jim Bobryk, San Clemente, suggested signage provides character and individuality.

John McCalley, President of the Board of Directors for the San Clemente Inn, urged Council to oppose the proposed Ordinance.

Lew Avera, San Clemente, urged Council to oppose the proposed Ordinance; spoke on the importance of business identification.

Susan Jennrich, General Manager of the Outlets at San Clemente, urged Council to oppose the Ordinance; spoke on the importance of freeway signage to attract prospective customers to the outlets.

Jason Chase, Customer Service Manager of the Outlets at San Clemente, reported that customers cannot find the outlets due to the lack of signage; urged Council to allow signage.

Hiram deFries, speaking on behalf of San Clemente Shell, spoke on the importance of signage to attract freeway commuters; reported that the Shell station provides public restrooms.

Scott Williams, San Clemente, spoke in opposition to the proposed Ordinance; suggested that signs are beneficial to small businesses.

Adele Lux, San Clemente, spoke in support of signage; asserted that removal of her business sign would negatively impact her restaurant; reported she has a petition with over 500 signatures of persons who support her sign.

Gregory Briggs, representing Thrifty Oil Company, reported that Thrifty owns two service stations in San Clemente that have freeway-oriented signs; spoke in opposition to the proposed Ordinance, noting that the service stations contribute tax dollars to the City.

Jeff Pantukhoff, San Clemente, stated that he is the Faire Harbour Homeowners Association President, but is speaking on his own behalf; displayed a photograph that demonstrated light and glare emissions from the Outlets at San Clemente; asserted that freeway-oriented signs should be prohibited.

Benjamin Doran, San Clemente, voiced concern with light pollution from the outlet mall; suggested that freeway signs are acceptable, but opposed signage, especially lighted signage, on the rear side of buildings at the outlet mall.

Steve Knoblock, Assistant General Counsel for Craig Realty Group, spoke in opposition to the proposed Ordinance, due to the negative financial impact on businesses and the reduction in tax revenues.

Kathleen Armenteros, San Clemente, spoke in opposition to freeway-oriented signs and requested that Council not allow any additional lighted signs at the outlet mall; urged Council to adopt a model lighting ordinance.

Taees Ghassemi, owner of Valero Gas Station, expressed the importance of signage to locate businesses; asserted that removal of Valero's sign will negatively impact her business.

Ben Dashti, owner of Valero Gas Station, read a letter from John Adam (owner of a service station in San Juan Capistrano), which conveyed the importance of signage to business viability.

Paul Chopra, owner of Denny's in San Clemente, urged Council to oppose the proposed Ordinance; asserted that signage affects the livelihood of businesses and suggested that emphasis should be placed on improving the aesthetics of current signage.

Marsha Morgan, San Clemente, spoke in support of signage.

Jack Miller, San Clemente, spoke in support of signage.

Adam Ghassemi, Rancho Santa Margarita, stated his father owns Valero Gas Station; asserted that Valero is dependent on its freeway signage because the station is not visible from the I-5; urged Council to engage in open dialogue with business owners to reach an acceptable solution.

Clint Knitz, San Clemente, spoke in support of freeway signage.

Lisa Francesconi, General Manager of the San Clemente Inn, reported on the success of the San Clemente Inn and the associated Transient Occupancy Tax that the Inn generates; urged Council to oppose the proposed Ordinance.

Jim Bieber, San Clemente, spoke on the importance of signage; asserted that familiar signs give residents a feeling of being home; urged Council to allow signage at the outlet mall.

Eddie Ghassemi, Owner of Valero Gas Station, reported that he has proposed several options to remodel his gas station, but they were rejected by the City because of the signage component; urged Council to allow freeway-oriented signage.

Allan London, Connecticut, reported that when the State of Connecticut regulated the size of signage, many businesses went out of business; urged Council to oppose the proposed Ordinance.

Juleann Murray, San Clemente, reported that she relies on freeway signage to find businesses; spoke against freeway-oriented signage at the outlet mall and urged that the mall's lighting be reduced.

There being no others desiring to speak on this issue, the Public Hearing was closed.

MEETING RECESSED

Council recessed at 9:04 p.m. and reconvened at 9:20 p.m., with all members present.

Mayor Baker reopened the Public Hearing to accommodate commentary from a latecomer to the meeting.

Hal Brice, Dana Point, spoke in support of freeway signage, noting that retail businesses cannot survive without exposure; spoke on the importance of business visibility to generate sales tax revenue.

There being no others desiring to speak on this issue, the Public Hearing was closed.

A lengthy discussion ensued, which included City Attorney responses to legal points raised during the hearing and in letters received.

Following deliberations, MOTION BY COUNCILMEMBER BROWN, SECOND BY COUNCILMEMBER HAMM, CARRIED 4-1 (COUNCILMEMBER DONCHAK VOTING NOE), to direct Staff to modify Ordinance No. 1619 (Staff's recommended version which omits Section 5 Amortization provisions) to provide that signage that is non-conforming as defined in the ordinance, will be allowed to be updated and modified without removal as long as the use stays the same. The existing sign pole policy, which does not include amortization, but classifies pole signs as a non-conforming use, is to be retained. Revised Ordinance No. 1619 and Resolution No. 16-13 (which would approve the General Plan Amendment) are to be agendized for the March 15, 2016 Council meeting.

B. Chase Bank (907 Avenida Pico) - Amendment to Site Plan Permit 99-162/Amendment to Concept Plan 94-23/Site Plan Permit 15-28/Architectural Permit 15-217/Tentative Parcel Map 2014-126

Public Hearing to consider the February 2, 2016 Planning Commission recommendation for a subdivision of the Lowe's parcel located at 907 Avenida Pico for a Chase Bank with a drive through and detached trash enclosure. The project also includes an Amendment to the Site Plan Permit for the Lowe's property to allow the relocation of the early morning truck delivery staging area and amendment to the Concept Plan parking requirements for the site located at 907 Avenida Pico.

Associate Planner Ciampa reviewed the contents of the Administrative Report and displayed photographs of the proposed project. A hard copy of the photographs are on file with the City Clerk.

Mayor Baker opened the Public Hearing.

Aaron Tofani, representing Chase Bank, responded to Council inquiries.

There being no others desiring to speak, the Public Hearing was closed.
