How to make s'mores in the oven

- Preheat your oven to broil.
- On a sheet pan add your graham cracker halves (leave an inch of space or so around the graham crackers as the marshmallows will expand).
- Top with the square of chocolate.
- Top the graham crackers with a marshmallow.
- Place on a rack 5-6 inches below the top of the oven.
- Leave the door open 3-4 inches so you can peek in.
- Watch for 20-30 seconds for them to char and expand.
- Remove from the oven and cover with additional graham crackers and serve.

How to make s'mores in the microwave

- Just a note, in a microwave you won't have any of the delicious parts that have been charred.
- On a plate add the graham cracker half, cover with a square of chocolate.
- Top the graham crackers with a marshmallow.
- Microwave for 15 seconds.
- Top with graham cracker half and enjoy immediately.

How to make s'mores on the stove

- On a plate add the graham cracker half, cover with a square of chocolate.
- Using a skewer, turn you gas stove onto high heat and hold the marshmallows over the flame.
- Let the marshmallow "catch" fire for a couple of seconds before blowing it out and turn off your stove.
- Using the second graham cracker square, put the marshmallow over the chocolate, press the graham cracker over it while taking the skewer out.

How to make s'mores on the grill

- On a plate add the graham cracker half, cover with a square of chocolate.
- Using a skewer, turn you grill onto high heat and hold the marshmallows over the surface but not touching it.
- Let the marshmallow "catch" fire for a couple of seconds before blowing it out.
- Using the second graham cracker square, put the marshmallow over the chocolate, press the graham cracker over it while taking the skewer out.
