

San Clemente Theater

Historical Architectural Elements for Salvage and Refurbishment

HISTORICAL ELEMENTS

The items on the following list are of the remaining historic architectural elements. All items on this list are to be salvaged and/or protected in place for reuse.

LIGHT FIXTURES

Light fixtures are to be saved for documentation and refurbishment.

Wall sconce in theater space

Hanging lamps in theater space

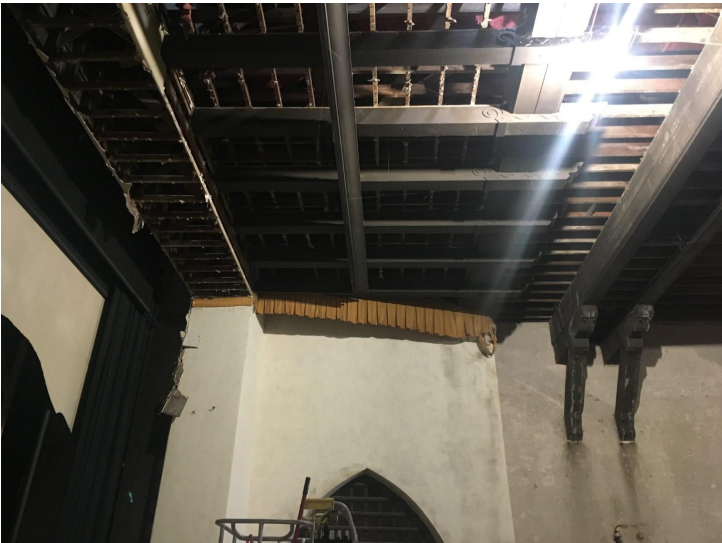

Chandelier under Portico

DECORATIVE BEAMS

Large beams with diagonal bracing in theater space

Large beams with decorative strapping in theater space over stage

Drop beams in ceiling of lobby space

HONED WOOD BARS

Honed wood bars in theater space

Honed wood mock gate in theater space

HONED WOOD BARS CONT.

Honed wood bars at ticket window

METAL BARS

Metal bars over windows

ARCHITECTURAL DETAILING

Column capital and brick columns at portico

Corbels and architectural detailing for the Spanish Colonial Revival vernacular of the exterior of the building need to be salvaged for reuse or documented for recreation.

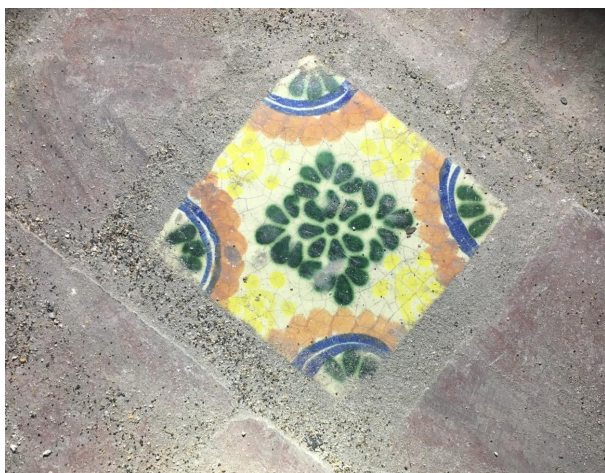

ORIGINAL DOORS

Entry doors to be salvaged so they can be documented for recreation

ORIGINAL TILE

Samples of original tiles both interior and exterior shall be removed undamaged and used as sample to choose new tile for construction

PROJECTOR ROOM FRAMING

Originally framing for projector room to be preserved and protected in place

CHIMNEY

Original chimneys to be preserved and protected in place

TOWER

As most important element of building the tower structure needs to be protected in place and all architectural elements to be preserved

