P3a. Description:

The property contains a two-story single family residence with a rectangular plan and wood-frame construction. Designed in the Spanish Colonial Revival style, it has a low-pitch front-gable roof with clay tiles over the main volume of the residence. A single-story projecting wing features a shed roof. The exterior walls are clad with original smooth stucco. The primary facade on the ground level contains an offset main entrance flanked by a non-original fixed picture window. On the upper story, a stucco-clad end-wall chimney is flanked by two wood double-hung sash windows. The fenestration consists of original wood-frame windows throughout the residence. The original entrance door to the residence is also retained. The residence is in fair condition. Its integrity is good.

Area City of San Clemente

Period of Significance 1937-1949 Property Type Residential Applicable Criteria A

This two-story single family residence was built prior to 1939, according to an alteration permit. An exact date of construction for the residence is not known. This property is a typical example of the Spanish Colonial Revival style as represented in San Clemente. This property appears eligible as a contributor to a potential local historic district under Criterion A for its association with San Clemente in the '30s and '40s. It is recommended for retention on the Historic Structures List.
