P3a. Description:

The property contains a two-story single family residence with a irregular plan and wood-frame construction. The garage to the residence is at the street level, while the residence itself sits below the street level. Designed in the Spanish Colonial Revival style, it has a front-gable roof with clay tiles as well as a shed roof with clay tiles over the covered porch. The exterior walls are clad with smooth stucco. The primary facade includes a covered porch with wood porch supports and non-original iron elements. Spanish Colonial Revival elements of the residence include exposed rafter tails and a balcony. The fenestration consists of non-original wood casement windows throughout the residence. The residence is in good condition. Its integrity is good.

Period of Significance 1925-1936 Property Type Residential Applicable Criteria A

This two-story single-family residence was built for Mr. & Mrs. Danny Henton in 1929. This property is a unique example of the Spanish Colonial Revival style as represented in San Clemente. Due to a large addition, the property no longer appears eligible for the National Register, but remains eligible as a contributor to a potential local historic district under Criterion A for its association with the Ole Hanson/Spanish Village by the Sea period of development. It is recommended for retention on the Historic Structures List.
