P3a. Description:

The property contains a two-story single family residence with a rectangular plan and wood-frame construction. Designed in the Spanish Colonial Revival style, it has a low-pitch hip roof with clay tiles, overhanging eaves and exposed rafter tails. The exterior walls are clad with original smooth stucco. The fenestration consists of wood double-hung and fixed windows throughout the residence. A non-original bay window with a clay tile shed roof defines the prominent street facade wall. A stucco chimney is located at the front end wall. The residence is in good condition. Its integrity is good.
