P3a. Description:

The property contains a one-story single family residence with a rectangular plan and wood-frame construction. Designed in the Spanish Colonial Revival style, it has both side-gable and front-gable roofs clad in clay tiles as well as a flat roof over the enclosed entry porch on the primary facade. The exterior walls are clad with smooth stucco. A stucco wall covered in vegetation encloses an adjacent courtyard. The fenestration consists of original wood double-hung and casement windows throughout the residence. The residence also has wood fixed windows. The only known alterations include the enclosure of the entry porch and an addition made to the building in 1950. The residence is in good condition. Its integrity is fair.
