P3a. Description:

The property contains a two-story single family residence with a rectangular plan and wood-frame construction. Designed in the Spanish Colonial Revival style, it has a side-gable roof with clay tiles. The exterior walls are clad with non-original smooth stucco. Spanish Colonial Revival features of the residence include exposed rafter tails, a stucco chimney, and a side and back balcony. The residence includes wood balustrades and wood porch supports. It is possible that the residence includes an addition. The garage is at street level and includes a non-original door. The fenestration consists of original wood windows throughout the residence. The residence is in good condition. Its integrity is fair.

Period of Significance 1925-1936 Property Type Residential Applicable Criteria A

This two-story single family residence was built for O.M. Berg, a builder frequently employed in San Clemente, in 1929. It was designed by E.W. Klausen and constructed by O.M. Berg. This property is a typical example of the Spanish Colonial Revival style as represented in San Clemente. This property appears eligible as a contributor to a potential National Register district under Criterion A for its association with the Ole Hanson/Spanish Village by the Sea period of development. It also appears eligible at the local level as a contributor to a potential historic district. It is recommended for retention on the Historic Structures List.
