P3a. Description:

The property contains a one-story commercial building with a irregular plan and wood-frame construction. Designed in the Spanish Colonial Revival style, it has multiple gable, hip and shed roof portions, all clad with clay tiles. The exterior walls are clad with smooth stucco. The primary facade features a projecting, covered entry with a hip roof and a hexagonal tower with a hipped roof and decorative round vents. The fenestration consists of original wood windows, some fixed, throughout the building. Hexagonal windows are on each side of the tower. Along the west elevation a row of windows provides a symmetrical, horizontal effect to an otherwise asymmetrical building with various heights and projections. The building is in good condition. Its integrity is good.
