P3a. Description:

The property contains a one- and two-story multiple family residence with an irregular plan and wood-frame construction. Designed in the Spanish Colonial Revival style, it has a front-gable roof over the front one-story wing, and a side-gable over the rear two-story wing. The roofs are clad with clay tiles. The exterior walls are clad with non-original smooth stucco. The residence features a side courtyard. Spanish Colonial Revival elements of the residence include exposed rafter tails and a slender stucco chimney. The fenestration consists of original wood divided-light windows in fixed and double-hung configurations throughout the residence. The residence is in good condition. Its integrity is good.

Period of Significance 1925-1936 Property Type Residential Applicable Criteria A

This one-and two-story multi-family residence was built for Dr. Geo. H. Stanley in 1928. It was designed by Virgil Westbrook. This property is a typical example of the Spanish Colonial Revival style as represented in San Clemente. This property appears eligible as a contributor to a potential National Register district under Criterion A for its association with the Ole Hanson/Spanish Village by the Sea period of development. It also appears eligible at the local level as a contributor to a potential historic district. It is recommended for retention on the Historic Structures List.
