Erik,

I hope you're keeping well.

It's been a long time since I first reached out regarding the City's sewer fee error. As you know I contested the fees at the time they were levied (with Zac Ponsen) and subsequently prior to getting a C of O on the project – i.e. while we were still doing work under the permit.

I know you had said you need to do some research on this but several months have passed.

I would really like to avoid having to sue the City over these fees. Is there a way we can get this resolved?

Thanks!

Nick
